*Come and worship
Rejoice in fellowship
Love and serve the Lord!*

Dear All Saints' Family,

Today we enter the Easter Triduum, beginning with this evening's Maundy Thursday liturgy. I share with you the beautiful opening prayer, the Exultet, often sung at the Saturday evening Easter Vigil. (All Saints', like many churches no longer has an Easter Vigil.) We look forward to celebrating the great Feast of Easter with you on Sunday morning at 9:30 am.

Exultet

Rejoice now, heavenly hosts and choirs of angels, and let your trumpets shout Salvation for the victory of our mighty King.

Rejoice and sing now, all the round earth, bright with a glorious splendor,
for darkness has been vanquished by our eternal King.

Rejoice and be glad now, Mother Church, and let your holy courts, in radiant light, resound with the praises of your people.

All you who stand near this marvelous and holy flame, pray with me to God the Almighty
for the grace to sing the worthy praise of this great light; through Jesus Christ his Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly right and good, always and everywhere, with our whole heart and mind and voice, to praise you, the invisible, almighty, and eternal God, and your only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who at the feast of the Passover paid for us the debt of Adam's sin, and by his blood delivered your faithful people.

This is the night, when you brought our fathers, the children of Israel, out of bondage in Egypt, and led them through the Red Sea on dry land.

This is the night, when all who believe in Christ are delivered from the gloom of sin, and are restored to grace and holiness of life.

This is the night, when Christ broke the bonds of death and hell, and rose victorious from the grave.

How wonderful and beyond our knowing, O God, is your mercy and loving-kindness to us, that to redeem a slave, you gave a Son.

How holy is this night, when wickedness is put to flight, and sin is washed away. It restores innocence to the fallen, and joy to those who mourn. It casts out pride and hatred, and brings peace and concord.

How blessed is this night, when earth and heaven are joined and man is reconciled to God.

Holy Father, accept our evening sacrifice, the offering of this candle in your honor. May it shine continually to drive away all darkness. May Christ, the Morning Star who knows no setting, find it ever burning--he who gives his light to all creation, and who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

Blessings,

Julie

On Sunday, May 1, we will be joined for a special Eastertide service by the Brass Arts Trio. Their program, adapted for our congregation and service format, will intersperse music with readings, and include spirituals, jazz, scripture and inspirational readings focusing on peace and social justice in today's world. Brass Arts Trio is a trio of trumpet, French horn, and piano, (plus a brilliant operatic tenor who also plays the Native American flute). The group has won acclaim for its adventurous programming, breathtaking virtuosity and artistic passion, inspiring listeners across the US and UK. All are welcome!

Churchyard Work Party, April 23rd, 9:00 AM

To mark Earth Day weekend, the Churchyard Redesign team will be holding its first work party on Saturday, April 23rd, to begin preparing gardens new plants. We welcome all to help with picking up trash and weeding. Wear old clothes, bring drinking water and garden tools, and friends! We plan to work from 9:00 to 10:30 am.

Outreach News

Collecting White Socks for Crossroads

As you are out and about in your errands, pick up a pair of white socks for Crossroads. Outreach's annual white socks for Crossroads collection is under way. Please leave the socks in the basket by the church entrance or in Rose Hall. We are collecting white socks through April.

Crossroads Family Center Needs Full Size Sheets

If you have an extra set of new or gently used full size sheets, please consider donating them to Crossroads Family Center. Please bring the sheets with you to church and Outreach will deliver them to Crossroads Family Center.
