Music Notes

On Sunday as we gather Chip Smith will play a piano piece that he composed when he was a senior in high school:

Inspired

"In the final class of my Senior High School History & Lit class, the teacher went around and asked do you have your final report ready?"

(I attended Barrington High School class of 1972)

I didn't until she called on me.

"Yes", I said, " But I need a piano"

"You're kidding", she said

"No, I need a piano and now!"

She escorted me to a small room with a piano and said, "OK, show me."

It started with the right hand soon joined by the left and I asked her to take notes. The teacher and I were astonished as the composition unfolded. I was able to transcribe her note and wrote out the entire 3 page piece."
