Dear All Saints' Family,

I share with you a video recording of Sunday's prelude, How Can I Keep From Singing? (composer Rev. Robert Lowry).

David Moniz, Soloist

Richard Spicer, Piano

Here is the text if you want to sing along!

My life flows on in endless praise;
Above earth's lamentation,
I catch the sweet, tho' far-off hymn
That hails a new creation;
Thro' all the tumult and the strife
I hear the music ringing;
It finds an echo in my soul—
How can I keep from singing?

I lift my eyes; the cloud grows thin;
I see the blue above it;
And day by day this pathway clears,
Since first I learned to love it,
The peace of God restores my soul,

A fountain ever springing;
All things are mine since I am loved—
How can I keep from singing?

Thank you David and Rich.

Peace and Blessings

Julie

Office Notes

Rev. Julie will be on vacation Wednesday- Saturday morning, August 22-26. Please contact a Vestry member if a pastoral emergency arises.

Music Notes

Sunday's postlude features a fugue from the Eight Little Preludes and Fugues, long attributed to Johann Sebastian Bach, and is the companion to last week's postlude. Recent Bach scholarship in the last few decades has questioned the attribution to JSB, however, and they are now believed to be the works of a Bach contemporary, perhaps one of his pupils, though the definitive composer is yet unknown. Nevertheless, they are elegant and concise compositions which explore a variety of styles and performing problems, and thus still constitute excellent examples and exercises for those learning to play the organ. And perhaps you will agree that they are worthy to hear as well!
