*Come and worship
Rejoice in fellowship
Love and serve the Lord!*

Dear All Saints' Family,

Thank you, Dan for sending your photo of the snow blanketing the courtyard at All Saints' (scroll down to the Snow Policy announcement).

I happened to catch Chip on Channel 6 this week. I snapped a photo of the TV. Scroll down for that photo too.

Please keep those photos coming. It is so nice to include your photos and reflections in this newsletter. It makes this weekly messenger more of a congregational project and a fellowship connection. Next week I would like to include photos of our 2022 Vestry Officers and Vestry members. Feel free to send photos from our Annual Meeting on Sunday. Speaking of photos and fellowship, here is a joyful picture sent to me recently:

Yesterday the church celebrated the Feast of the Presentation of Our Lord. We reflected on this Feast at Noonday Prayer. Wilmar remarked that he remembers this day as Candlemas and the lighting of candles during an Evensong Candlemas Service. In church tradition this was a day when candles were blessed or people could bring their own candles to be blessed. Perhaps we will celebrate Candlemas next year with an Evensong. It could be a goal for us a congregation to gather and celebrate other feasts once or twice a year. Suggestions are most welcome.

In other news, I wanted to share with you that I will be having a knee replacement on February 18th. I have put this surgery off for a few years and now is the time. The surgeon tells me that I should plan on being out on medical leave for four weeks. Please be assured that we have engaged supply clergy for those weeks including emergency pastoral care. If you have an emergency pastoral need starting Feb 18th, please call or text our Senior or Junior Warden. The Wardens will connect you with the clergy person on call. You may also call our parish administrator Linda Moss during office hours (Tuesday-Friday, 9am-12:00pm).

And finally, Sandy passed along a cute reflection that she saw a few weeks ago. Thank you, Sandy.

Should you lose your Positive Attitude under pressure during this flight, reach up and pull down a prayer. Prayers will automatically be activated by Faith. Once your* Faith is activated, you can assist other passengers who are of little faith. There will be NO BAGGAGE allowed on this flight. God, our Captain, has cleared us for take-off. Destination- GREATNESS! Wishing you a year filled with new HOPE, new JOY, and new BEGINNINGS!

Annual Meeting: This Sunday, February 6th

Our Annual Meeting is now scheduled for this Sunday immediately following our 9:30 am Service of Holy Eucharist. Please stay in the church or remain on Zoom after the Service so that you may participate.

Notes from the Music Program

My grandfather composed music on Saturday afternoons while listening to the NY Metropolitan Opera on the radio. I performed the first piece about two years ago at All Saints'. The second is a thank you to our congregation for making the stewardship campaign a success.

All Saints' Snow Policy

If the city of Providence declares a parking ban or the State of RI declares a weather emergency urging people to stay off the roads, our 9:30 a.m. Sunday service will be canceled.

We will post a cancellation notification on our website and our Facebook page.

From the Office

Many of you have received a card like the one above from our Pastoral Care Ministry in the past. It's time to create some new cards not only for birthdays but for other occasions as well.

The plan is to feature pictures that represent All Saints'. We're asking for your help. If you have a picture of the church, the altar, or other meaningful photos, please send it to the office or text the photo to Rev. Julie. We'd like enough photos so that each type of card will feature a different picture.

~ Office Hours: Tuesday-Friday 9am-12pm.
