Come and worship
Rejoice in fellowship
Love and serve the Lord!

For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour my spirit upon your descendants, and my blessing on your offspring. They shall spring up like a green tamarisk, like willows by flowing streams (Isaiah 44:3-4).

Have you noticed that our scripture readings from the last few Sundays have lots to say about growing and cultivating? This Saturday, July 18 you are welcome to join the Garden Ministry at the church from 9-12!

This Sunday, July 19 is the third and last Episcopal 101 session this summer. We have discussed the Anglican Communion and how the Episcopal churches (US and Liberian) fit into the Anglican Communion. Next we talked about the origins of the Episcopal church following the American Revolution. Last Sunday we looked at the origins of the Book of Common Prayer and noted the breadth and depth of the Prayer Book today. On Sunday, let's talk about Eucharist. Our discussion will focus on Sacraments. All are welcome via Zoom right after the 9:30 service.

I just can't thank Ryan Mott enough for all of his effort and wisdom as we have moved to live streaming our Sunday services in addition to Zoom. He has figured out what equipment is working well and what doesn't work well, guided us in upgrading the church's wifi to accommodate live streaming and zoom simultaneously, and spent enormous amounts of time on broadcasting our service. Here is a link to last Sunday's service: <https://www.facebook.com/AllSaintsMemorialChurch/videos/276036540488215/> Note the fine music quality!

If you and your family would like to join us in-person for an upcoming service, please e-mail Marisa or email, text, or call me. We will be in touch with you to confirm. We are now inviting 20 people to attend. For safety reasons, please do not plan on coming to a Sunday service unless you have received confirmation from Marisa or me.

In Peace,
Julie

Prayer

God

keep me always greening

keep me rooted in the dark
keep me turning
into light

keep me well
and deeply watered
keep me bending with the winds

keep me growing
beyond fences
keep me leafing
budding blooming

keep me fruiting
keep me yielding
every blessing
everything

keep me healing
calm and able keep me still
as stillness calls

keep me always
greening
God
