*Come and worship
Rejoice in fellowship
Love and serve the Lord!*

Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than we can ask or imagine, to him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever.

Amen. (Ephesians 3:21)

Dear All Saints' Family,

As I stood in the aisle during the gradual hymn last week, I heard the voices of several choir members who were seated nearby. It was lovely to be standing among singers for the first time in quite a long while.

This Wednesday evening, July 28th, Barry invites anyone who wishes to sing to join choir members in a practice session. As we look forward to the choir's return in September, I want to extend our warm appreciation to David Moniz who has been our cantor/soloist for the last year. Week in and week out, David has faithfully brought musical beauty to our Sunday services, much of the time masked. Not as easy as it looks and sounds! Thank you, David for your dedication to All Saints' during these many months.

We welcome Barry back this week! Barry played the prelude and processional last Sunday as warm up for his full return this Sunday. Here is Barry on Sunday looking very serious before he moved to the organ bench!

I'd also like to extend our great appreciation to Jay MacCubbin who has served as our organist since May. Thank you, Jay. Here is Jay getting ready for his Tuesday morning practicing session:

There are few other folks I would like to thank who have been helping in quiet and not so visible ways, offering very essential assistance. Marsha Mott has been the "at-home" zoomer who served as advisor to the in-church tech team. Thank you, Marsha! She has assumed her in-person ushering responsibilities now, and for that we are also thankful.

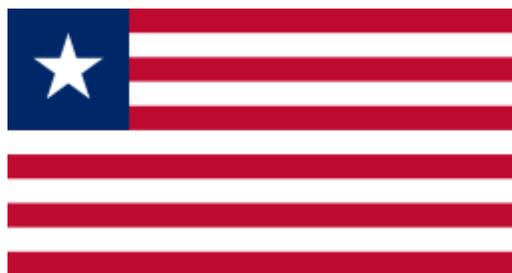

This summer while Marisa is on medical leave a few angels have been helping out in the office. Sandy Buote-Pease has joined me in the office each Thursday. Sandy copies and folds the Sunday service bulletins, and assists in other invaluable ways. A warm thanks, Sandy! Here is Sandy at Sunday's coffee hour.

And a special thanks to two more office angels, Musa Goll and Kathy Mechnig, for taking Friday morning shifts in the Parish Office this summer. Thank you Musa and Kathy!

You may want to extend your own thanks to these parishioners, and please introduce yourself as you do. At our June retreat the Vestry observed how welcoming it is when we can greet each other by name.

On a celebratory note, July 26th is Liberian Independence Day. Blessings on the 26th to our Liberian sisters and brothers.

All are welcome to join our Sunday in-person service of Holy Eucharist at 9:30 am followed by coffee hour in Rose Hall. Please wear a mask and practice social distancing if you are not yet fully vaccinated.

For the Beauty of the Earth

We give you thanks, most gracious God, for the beauty of earth and sky and sea; for the richness of mountains, plains, and rivers; for the songs of birds and the loveliness of flowers. We praise you for these good gifts, and pray that we may safeguard them for our posterity. Grant that we may continue to grow in our grateful enjoyment of your abundant creation, to the honor and glory of your Name, now and for ever. Amen.
