E-Messenger, July 27, 2023

Come and worship

Rejoice in fellowship

Love and serve the Lord!

“For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 8:38-9).

Dear All Saints' Family,

Thanks to our dedicated Music Director Search Committee we now have a vision statement for the All Saints' Music Program. This vision will guide our next Music Director/Organist:

Vision Statement

Music that brings all closer to Christ is the ultimate goal of the Music Program at All Saints'. We will achieve this by developing a quality program geared to sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ through song that includes music from throughout the Anglican communion, past and present. Our program must recognize and embrace the diversity and the range of traditions within our congregation. Music at All Saints' must support and develop congregational singing as well as build and improve the choir.

Speaking of vision, we are looking ahead to this Sunday (July 30) and have decided to move our Service of Holy Eucharist downstairs to Rose Hall. While it looks like cooler weather may arrive on Sunday, it takes a day or two for the church to cool down after a few days of high heat and humidity. The Service will be held in Rose Hall. Please pass the word along!

This Sunday is our Coffee Hour discussion on End of Life/Funeral Planning. This discussion will be in Rose Hall right after the Service. Ms. Christine Cardoza from Bell Funeral Home is our invited speaker. All are invited to join us. If you wish to join us via Zoom, simply remain on Zoom after the Service.

Peace and Blessings,
Julie

O God, whom saints and angels delight to worship in heaven: Be ever present with your servants who seek through art and music to perfect the praises offered by your people on earth; and grant to them even now glimpses of your beauty, and make them worthy at length to behold it unveiled for evermore; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (BCP, p.820)

All are warmly welcome to join our Sunday Service of Holy Eucharist July 30, 9:30am
