Ascension of Our Lord

*A hymn of glory let us sing;
New songs throughout the world shall ring;
Christ, by a road before untrod,
Ascendeth to the throne of God.
(From Bede's Ascension Hymn)*

An Ascension Prayer

Holy and blessed Trinity, Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier, Unity in Diversity, and Diversity in Unity, lift us we pray into your presence where we can experience the union of divine love, and grant us the ability to embrace our connectedness with all that is above in the heavenly places and here in this earthly life. Inspire us with your love for all being. We ask this in your most glorious name. Amen.

—Rev. Richard O. Singleton from The Last Words of the Resurrected Christ

Dear All Saints' Family,

We are so pleased to report that the much needed masonry repair project is now under way. The project will take about three weeks. Here is a photo from earlier in the week:

By Sunday, the entrance on the St. Elizabeth's side of the church will be free and clear for our use.

As the State slowly reopens, we too are planning reopening in a limited fashion. We are delighted to welcome all of our congregation to in-person worship starting on Trinity Sunday, May 30th. Masks and social distancing are required; the new State guidelines require a minimum of 3 feet of social distancing. We will continue to Zoom and livestream the Sunday service for parishioners and friends who wish to participate from home.

We are not yet ready to host an outdoor coffee hour, but are in discussion about safe ways to do so. We hope to make this possible soon!

All are welcome to join our Sunday Service via Zoom or in-person.
