Altar Flower Ministry

Do you love to garden? After a very wet spring, finally everything is green and there are so many buds bursting into bloom! If you are a gardener, we are hoping you will share your gifts of labor, blooms, and greens with us for our altar flowers. Wouldn't it be great to expand our ASMC ministries to include a flower ministry? So many of us devote our time and treasure to our church community and we are grateful. I would love to expand our connection to each other by knowing the flowers or greens we see on the altar were tended by one of our own. Our Mother's Day bake sale also added to that connection. While I was baking, I was thinking of the recipients of my baked goods and felt connected to them and pictured them enjoying the dishes I prepared for them. There was something special, maybe a little spiritual even, as I prepared food for someone I know at our church. I think we will feel that connection when we admire the altar flowers each week. If you have blooms or greens and would like to share them over the next couple of months, please let me know. I will put a schedule together and keep you posted on last minute changes or needs.

Thank you, Marybeth Hanavan

Arts Calendar

Have you noticed the green calendar entries in our Church Calendar (website or in ChurchTrac)? These tell you about upcoming arts events in the Greater Providence area that feature one or more members of our congregation and that you might enjoy attending. If you would like to add an event, please see Becky or email her with details: rsillima@bu.edu.

FOOD COLLECTION

Each week All Saints' collects food to be distributed monthly to food pantries in our area. You are asked, as you are able, to bring one item on the monthly list each Sunday.

May, cold cereal
June, rice

As always, thank you for your generosity.
