Dear All Saints' Family,

I'm sure you have noticed the scaffolding in the church. It will be with us for a few more weeks. The painters are just about finished in Rose Hall and soon will move upstairs to the church. Kudos and a huge thank you to Dan for his persistence in seeing this long-anticipated painting project through. Dan has patiently worked with Church Insurance, roofers, and the painting company over the last year to address 2023 storm damage. Rose Hall has a fabulous, bright, and fresh look. Thanks again, Dan.

As you leave the church you may want to take a moment to appreciate the Healing of Creation Gardens. You will see red columbine in the memorial garden and wood poppies in the rain garden. Come and help tend the gardens at our next Garden Clean-up Morning, Saturday, May 18.

Welcome to Jeremiah, our newest parishioner (photo below). That's Auntie Joyce next to us in the church. Congratulations Philletta (mom) and Kardi (grandma)!

Philletta and

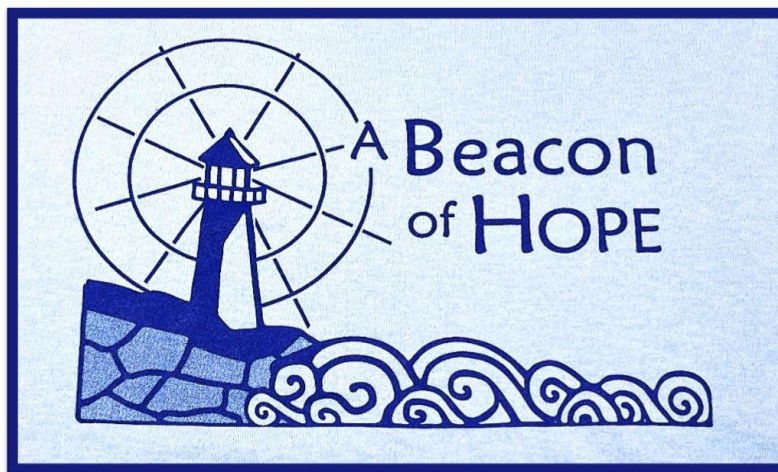

Jeremiah
