"A home you are to all Christ's family dear... Here each to all and all to each grow near with God's high tasks their aim and sweet employ."

Dear All Saints' Family,

In honor of the Feast of All Saints and our 175th anniversary of incorporation I share with you a poem written by The Rev. Arthur M. Aucock, D.D., Rector of All Saints' from 1898-1932. His considerable service spanned 34 years.

If you stop and look around the church and Rose Hall you will find so many interesting treasures and tributes to saints of the past. This poem,

All Saints Memorial Church hangs on the wall in the office.

All Saints Memorial Church

Dear shrine upon the busy street you stand
Crowning the hill like a stronghold of old days,
A temple on the crowded city's strand,
Where man to God his loving homage pays.

Within your gates your Gothic arches rise,
The dim lights twinkle on the altar fair,
To mystery and love man lifts his eyes,
And draws near God in holiest faith and prayer.

A home you are to all Christ's family dear,
Humanity and brotherhood your joy,
Here each to all and all to each grow near
With God's high tasks their aim and sweet employ.

O sacred fane, we love you yet the more
Because you hold in reverence our bright
Dear souls once here who on the farther shore
Now live and love in God's eternal light.

~ Rev. Arthur Aucock

Ancient Mozarabic Prayer

Hear us, O never-failing Light,
Lord our God, our only Light, the Fountain of Light,
the Light of your angels, thrones, dominions,
principalities, powers, and of all the beings of this world;
you have created the light of your saints,
the bright cloud of witnesses around us.
May our souls be your lamps, kindled and illumined by you.
May they shine and burn with your truth,
and never go out in darkness and ashes.
May we be your dwelling, shining from you, shining in you;
may we shine and our light never fail;

may we worship you always.

May we be kindled brightly and never extinguished.

Being filled with Christ's splendor,

may we shine within, so that the gloom of sin is cleared away,

and the light of everlasting life abides within us. Amen.

Calling All Saints - Nov. 7

On Sunday, November 7th we will celebrate the Feast of All Saints. This liturgy will mark 175 years of life together as a congregation. What a remarkable journey of faith!

We invite your participation in our Service of Holy Eucharist on the 7th. After the Service we will gather in the back of the church to help assemble the quilt that Charlotte has been working on this past year. Charlotte is looking for input on arranging the squares before she sews them together. She would like to know how you see the colors, patterns, and textures fitting together, melded into one whole. The quilt is made out of the many ties that you donated for the project. Our ties woven together in this work of art are testament to the Communion of Saints on the Feast of All Saints.

Thank you Charlotte for undertaking this magnificent project.

Wednesday Noonday Prayer and Bible Study

Join us each Wednesday for Noonday Prayer at 12:00pm followed by Bible Study at 12:15. We are reading Chapter 13 and Chapter 14:17-24 in the Book of Genesis for next Wednesday. Here is a link if you wish to participate via Zoom:
