E-Messenger, October 19, 2023

Come and worship

Rejoice in fellowship

Love and serve the Lord!

*For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all be encouraged.
And the spirits of prophets are subject to the prophets, for God is a God not of disorder but of peace (1 Corinthians 14:31-33).*

Dear All Saints' Family,

As we watch the pain and violence in Israel and Gaza, Bishop Knisely offers this prayer:

Holy One, we are in anguish witnessing the violence and suffering happening in the Holy Land. The scenes and the accounts are heart wrenching. Today we implore you to soften, to heal, the hearts of those consumed with anger and revenge. We pray for a cease-fire, we pray a for humanitarian response, and we pray for the diplomats working night and day to make both happen. We pray for our friends, and we pray for our enemies. We pray in the hope that by your grace, a new path might be possible. We pray this in the name of our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

Dove Project at St. Paul's, Indianapolis in 2015; parishioners were given designs and paper to cut out, without knowing what the final product would be: a flock of hundreds of doves symbolizing the Holy Spirit and peace.

Thank you to all who participated in the Wisdom of the Spirituals events this weekend. Dr. Jone's workshop at the Providence Public Library was recorded, as was the concert on Sunday evening at All Saints'. We will keep you posted on when those recordings are available and how you might watch/listen if you missed these marvelous events.

Outreach invites parishioners to submit names for Thanksgiving baskets. If you know of someone or a family who could use a little extra kindness on Thanksgiving in the form of a basket of Thanksgiving food, please give their names to a member of Outreach by October 29.

In Peace,
Julie

All are warmly welcome to join our Sunday Service of Holy Eucharist
